LET THOSE WHO RIDE DECIDE

CBA (Concerned Biker Association) is a legislative rights group that serves to defend motorcyclist rights against unfair governmental rulings and laws. CBA promotes motorcycle safety and awareness by educating individuals in schools, clubs and organizations about strategies to share the road and prevent accidents.

What is the impact of unfair laws?

- Profiling bikers as gang members
- Motorcycle only check points
- Mandating or limiting customization of motorcycles
- Helmet laws
- Minimal fines and punishment for violating right of way laws resulting a motorcycle accident
- Forgoing insurance and license for moped or scooter riders
- Neglecting road hazards for motorcyclists (painted, slick areas, grass clippings)
- Noise regulations

How does CBA fight against unfair laws?

- Members are familiar with legislators and communicate issues supported with documented evidence.
- Members collectively go to Raleigh and Washington DC to meet with lawmakers in person
- Strength in numbers

How does CBA educate the public about motorcycle safety?

- Members voluntarily educate future drivers in drivers' education classes
- .MSAP has taught over 300,000 high school students in NC to date in drivers education classes
- Funds motorcycle safety and awareness with roadway billboards
- Promotes the month of May as motorcycle awareness with city and county and state officials

How does CBA financially support itself?

CBA depends entirely on membership dues and fundraisers to accomplish goals
CBA is a volunteer group, there are no paid members
